I wanted to get an idea of everyone bringing their compact or non compact squirt guns for the party on the 6th? If there's enough, my family might all bring ours as well.

7 Yes. Just keep them concealed. Remember not to talk to any police in DC. They need probable cause to search you - especially if you're not in a vehicle

▼ Glowies are narcs looking to burn decent people by trying to get them to say or do something incriminating, or possibly give up info that can be used to burn them or their friends later
